The Right Questions to Ask When Conducting a Job Interview

1. Can you walk me through your career progression and how you got to where you are now?
2. What's the one skill that you feel has carried you through your career progression?
3. Give me an example of something that went wrong in your last job. How did you handle it?
4. What's one skill this job requires that you will need to improve on, and how will you do it?
5. What's the last goal you set and achieved? How did you do it?
6. Tell me about your favorite manager. What was it about how they did their job that you liked so much?
7. How do you like to spend your time off?
8. How do you measure success?
9. Why would you want to work here, and what do you know about our organization?
10. Do you have any questions for us?
